ANSWERED ON:21.03.2017
National Helpline
George Shri (Adv.) Joice

Will the Minister of ENVIRONMENT, FORESTS AND CLIMATE CHANGE be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Government has any proposal to introduce a national helpline to enable people to lodge complaints or get information about forest related activities and if so, the details thereof;
(b) whether there are provisions relating to man animal conflict and if so, the details thereof;
(c) whether the Government has established any mechanism for the said purpose and launched a pilot project; and
(d) if so, the details thereof?

Answer

MINISTER OF STATE (INDEPENDENT CHARGE) FOR ENVIRONMENT, FOREST AND CLIMATE CHANGE
(SHRI ANIL MADHAV DAVE)

(a) Presently there is no proposal to introduce a national helpline to enable people to lodge complaints or get information about forest related activities as we have robust system of forest management so information can be communicated at local office.

(b), (c) & (d) Does not arise in view of (a) above.
